

The Valentine Wreath.

BY MONTGOMERY.

Rosy red the hills appear
With the light of morning, Beauteous clouds in ether clear
All the east adorning, While through mist the meadows shine—Wake, my love, my Valentine.

For thy locks of raven hue, Flowers of hoar frost pearly, Crocus cups of gold and blue, Snow-drops drooping early,
With mezerion sprigs combine—Rise, my love, my Valentine.

O'er the margin of the flood Pluck the daisy peeping;
Through the covert of the wood Hunt the sorrel creeping;
With the little celandine, Crown my love, my Valentine.

Pansies on their lovely stems, Scattered o'er the fallows, Hazel buds with crimson gems,
Green and glossy fallows, Tufted moss and ivy twine, Deck my love, my Valentine.

Few and simple flowerets these;
Yet to me less glorious,
Garden beds and orchard trees!
Since this wreath, victorious, Binds you now forever mine, Oh my love, my Valentine.

[From Niel's Saturday Gazette.]

Love's Victim.

Oh, list to me, Lizzy,
You sweet lump of candy;
Love makes me feel dizzy,
Like sugar and brandy;
My vision is reeling—
My brains are all burning—
And the sweet cream of feeling Is curdled by churning.
For my heart 'neath my jacket
Is up and down jumping,
And keeps up a racket
With its thumping and bumping; Oh, show me one smile—'tis my last supplication!
I crave nothing further—'twill be my salvation!

Oh, Lizzy, I'm worsted—
I feel it all over:
I'm done up and bursted—
A broken down lover!
The joys of my bosom
Have cut stick and vanished;
I know'd I should lose 'em,
When my true love you banish'd:
The world has grown dreary,
In its sackcloth of sorrow;
Of life I am weary,
And I wish that to-morrow Would dawn on my grave in that peace-giving valley.
Where I'd care not for you, nor for Susan, nor Sally!

I know 'tis a sin to—
But I'm bent on the notion—I'll throw myself into The deep briny ocean,
Where mud-eels and cat-fish
On my body shall riot,
And flounders and flat fish Select me for diet;
There soundly I'll slumber Beneath the rough billow,
And crabs without number Shall crawl o'er my pillow;
But my spirit shall wander through the gay coral bowers,
And frisk with the mermaids—it shall, by the powers!

The New Orleans Commercial Times gives the following, under the head of "Literature and the Belle Letters."

To Bachelors.—Ye poor, miserable, lonely halves of a whole, consisting of two! ponder on the following lines, and with us, think of the blissful enjoyments of which you are deprived. We doubt-hesitatingly pronounce this effusion the truest picture of matrimonial and domestic felicity with which we have met during many years of single blessedness.
—BACH. ED.

"Where is the baby? Bless its heart—Got sweet chicky honey!
Stop, wipe its handys paws, now Its face—so that's a honey!
Now, just one kiss—there, run along—Well, really, now I do think—There never was so sweet a child—Now, really, what do you think?"

*For the true meaning of these words, together with tooty pooty, cum alongie, and other endearing baby-ological expressions, see forthcoming Brat-ical Dictionary, published by the Annual Bachelors' Ball Club Committee, in New York city.

Young womanhood?—the sweet moon on the horizon's verge—a thought matured, but not uttered—a conception, warm and glowing, not embodied—the rich halo which precedes the rising sun —the rosy dawn that bespeaks the ripening peach—a flower—

A flower which is not quite a flower, Yet is no more a bud.

Young womanhood! a chicken in the shell—a "small potato," that isn't fit for family use—a piece of green "live timber"—a moving sack of salt, tied round the middle with a string, with nothing in it—a young idea about taking the shoot—a saucy cackling hen—A hen which is not quite a hen, Nor aint a pullet either. Dow, Jr.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Southern Cultivator,

A Monthly Journal, devoted to the improvement of Southern Agriculture; Edited by James Camak, of Athens, Georgia.

IN submitting to the Southern public the prospectus for the 4th volume of the "SOUTHERN CULTIVATOR," which may now be regarded as permanently established, the publishers deem it unnecessary to advert to the high character the work has attained under the editorial control of Mr. CAMAK, and therefore make a direct appeal to the planters and friends of agriculture throughout the southern States, to aid them in sustaining a publication devoted exclusively to the cause of southern agriculture. The advantages and benefits resulting from agricultural periodicals, have been felt and acknowledged by the intelligent and reflecting tillers of the soil in all civilized nations; to be most useful, therefore, they should be extensively circulated among all classes of agriculturists; if possible they should be in the hands of every man who tills an acre of land, and to this end we invoke the aid of every one who feels an interest in the improvement of the agriculture of the south.

The first number of the 4th volume was issued on the first day of January, 1846.— It is published monthly, in quarto form, each number contains sixteen pages of matter, nine by twelve inches square.

TERMS:

One copy, one year,	$1 00
Six copies, one year,	5 00
Twenty-five copies one year	20 00 forced. The cash must always accompany the order.

PROSPECTUS

For publishing in the town of Kosciusko, At-tala county, Miss., a weekly newspaper, to be entitled the

KOSCIUSKO CHRONICLE.

The United States of America is a great country—the State of Mississippi a great State—the county of Attala a great county —and the Town of Kosciusko, no doubt, would be a great Town, was it not for the simple facts that the seat of government has not yet been removed to said town—that Big Back has not yet been cleared out, so point opposite said town—that the Jackson Rai road has not yet been extended more particularly, that at this time there is no newspaper published in said town, before 'this great people'. Now, it is a lamentable fact, beyond the point of contradiction, that we are a great people who live in this great country—State—county—and that we expect great works to be accomplished some time or other, by somebody or other, or somebody else, and that Kosciusko would be a great place if these great improvements were but just completed, thereby bringing it, as it were, within a stone's throw of the East Indies, Australia, China, Siberia, Greenland, Kamschatka and the North Pole.

Therefore, be it known to all men, women, children and grasshoppers, that the subscriber, in order to facilitate these great undertakings, and prevent their being nipped in the bud, and more particularly to turn an honest penny for himself, proposes to commence the publication of a little newspaper in said town, on Saturday, the third day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty six, to be styled the Kosciusko Chronicle, and to continue to publish said paper weekly, until these great objects shall be accomplished, should the Lord be pleased to spare his life so long, and he be willing to continue in the business that long; and if not him, then to have it done by somebody else after him. The subscriber being a strong believer in the doctrines promulgated by the immaculate Harry of the West and the Godlike Daniel of the East, it might be surmised by the know-
